

CHRISTMAS IN THE HILL COUNTRY

Fredericksburg and San Antonio

December 7-10, 2010

Enjoy a relaxing trip to one of the most beautiful areas in Texas during the Christmas Season. You'll be mesmerized by the culture, history, Christmas traditions and much more as we travel through this fascinating area.

DAY ONE TUESDAY FREDERICKSBURG

Depart FUMC at 7:00 a.m. Travel to Fredericksburg, stopping for lunch along the way, and arrive in time for an afternoon guided tour. Learn of the German heritage, history and development of one of Texas' most interesting areas. We will check into the Fredericksburg Inn and Suites (steps away from main street) with time to relax and perhaps do some shopping, visit art galleries, museums or simply savor and enjoy this intriguing city. Fredericksburg has recently added $250,000 of Christmas decorations, custom made in Germany, to their already extensive collection. The gigantic 26-ft Pyramid will take your breath away! Enjoy dinner this evening at an authentic German Restaurant. (D)

DAY TWO WEDNESDAY FREDERICKSBURG

Following breakfast at the hotel, we will tour the new 'National Museum of the Pacific War,' formally "The Admiral Nimitz Museum." The museum's 14.5 million dollar-40,000 ft. expansion opened Pearl Harbor Day, 2009. It is the only institution in the continental United States dedicated exclusively to telling the story of the Pacific Theater battles of World War II. The remainder of the day is yours to enjoy on your own. (B)

DAY THREE THURSDAY SAN ANTONIO

Today we will meander through the scenic Texas Hill Country on our way to San Antonio. This city dresses itself in lights unlike any other to celebrate the Christmas season. The famous River Walk slips on millions of lights and the parks dress up with 40' Christmas trees. Upon arrival we will check in to the Historic Menger Hotel just steps from the River Walk and the Alamo. The afternoon is at leisure. At the visitor's center (next to our hotel) you will find ideas for visiting the many attractions in the area. At dusk enjoy a boat ride on the river with the new 1.3 mile extension "Museum Reach" a floating corridor of art work and attractions. Enjoy a special Christmas Dinner, Mexican Style, at Casa Rio on the River walk. (D)

DAY FOUR FRIDAY IRVING

The morning is at leisure for last minute shopping or another trip to the beautiful River Walk. Lunch is on your own and we will depart at 1:00P, arriving Irving at approximately 6:00P
